Attorney General Jones' Report to Governor Cooper.

State Contractors Cannot be Sued for Overcharging.

The State Warrants Issued Have Not Yet Been Paid.

No Money Obtained Wrongfully from the Treasury.

Attorney General Jones' Report

DENVER, November 20.—The following was filed to-day by Attorney General Jones. It explains itself:

DENVER, Col., November 20, 1889.

To J. A. Cooper, Governor:

Sir—On the 28th of September last you addressed to me a communication accompanied by certain exhibits and reports relating to charges made that certain contractors and others had wrongfully received from the public treasury sums of money largely in excess of any amount to which they could be justly entitled under the law. You also suggested that you had retained Judge E. T. Wells and Judge L. S. Dixon as special counsel to assist therein. You likewise requested that, if upon an examination of the law I should be of the opinion that suits would lie to recover from any or all of the contractors the amount received by them in excess of the sum they were legally entitled to claim, I would, with all convenient speed, proceed to institute such suits.

In my reply thereto, of the same date, I stated that I would "at the earliest opportunity take such steps as will protect the interests of the state." In conformity with the above suggestions, and in conjunction with the assistant counsel employed by myself (Mr. H. Riddle), I have devoted to the subject that consideration which so grave an affair demand[s]. I now report to you my conclusions in the matter.

No suits will be or can be brought on account of these transactions against [illegible] Messrs Graham & Weber, Collier & Cleveland, Lawrence & Co., Hon. James Rice, or any of the state officers, for the plain and simple reason that not a dollar has been drawn out of the public treasury by any person on the account thereof. Warrants have been issued to the above named contractors for the amounts of their respective claims but these warrants have never been paid. This fact appears in the answer of Hon. W. H. Brisbane, state treasurer, to your excellency in the following language: "The above warrants were all drawn against appropriation funds none of which have been paid as all the state warrants drawn against appropriations ran about two years before being called for payment."

This also appears from a recent inspection of the [illegible] State warrants are not negotiable and consequently the state may [illegible] its defenses or objections to them in whosoever hands the [same] may be. Hence, all that is required to be done to absolutely protect the state from any loss by reason of any overcharge or fraud by contractors is for the treasurer to refuse payment of the warrants issued to the above parties, and thereby compel a mandamus proceeding by the holder and in this proceeding the state may interpose its objections.

The recent decision of the supreme court in answer to the questions from your excellency shows that every treasurer must be responsible on his [bond] for erroneous payments of public moneys. Hence the treasurer's interest would compel him to be careful about the payment of any warrant of doubtful validity. I will immediately notify the present treasurer by official communication that the warrants above referred to are of questionable validity and that the same shall not be paid except after payment is compelled by the courts and to make such entries on his books as will preserve this notification.

Nor could suits be maintained if brought, for such suits would necessarily be for money had and obtained wrongfully, and in these instances none has been obtained. So far, therefore, as the present attitude of the affair is concerned the state has received furniture, stationery, printing and other supplies for which it has as yet paid nothing and is [still] in a position to sue. The [illegible] of warrants to Messrs Bush and Moses is in the same condition. The other matter referred to me regarding moneys alleged to have been received on [illegible] is under consideration. I return herewith the papers and exhibits transmitted to me. They should be preserved [in] your office for use in any suit brought to compel payment of the above described warrants. Respectfully,

SAMUEL W. JONES,
Attorney General

We approve the foregoing conclusions.

L[ondon], November 20.—Continuing [his sp]eech before the Parnell commission to-day Sir Henry James referred to [the] [illegible] of Patrick Egan as proof of [illegible] conduct. He declared that [illegible] was his association with the [Phoenix P]ark murders. He referred to [Byrne's] alleged complicity in the murders [illegible] acting as secretary for the [illegible] party. Alluding to the [illegible] of the league's books he said he [illegible] to direct suspicion against [illegible] to make any allegations [illegible]. Still he could not help [illegible] that gentleman had been [illegible] upon regarding the missing [books]. If the commission could have [seen the] books they would have been [found to] contain records showing that [Egan] and other members of the Par[nellite] party were connected in a financial way with suspected individuals. [illegible] on this aspect of the case [lea]d to the gravest suspicion.

Fought to a Finish.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 20.—A fight [to a finish] between Billy McCarthy, [champion] middle weight of Australia, [and] Danny Kelleher, of Boston, for a [purse] took place at the rooms [of the] [illegible] Athletic club to-night. [Kell]eher was knocked out in the [illegible] round.

[McCarthy] took the aggressive when [time] was called and forced Kelleher [around] the ring with his vicious swings. [In the] third round he knocked Kelleher [down] with a right hander. Kelleher's [illegible] was cut in this round. McCarthy continued to push Kelleher about the ring from the [illegible] to the [illegible] twentieth round Kelleher [illegible] at times to McCarthy's [illegible]. From the sixteenth round the bout was somewhat lively and [illegible] number of good blows. [illegible] ning of the twenty [illegible] McCarthy dropped his hands [illegible] he proceeded to [illegible] and with a blow [illegible] knocked his opponent [illegible] his back and out with the back of his head [illegible].

Before the fight to-night President Fulda of the California Athletic club put before [illegible] proposition to match John L. Sullivan and Peter Jackson to fight in the club's rooms for the world's championship amid great excitement. A motion of Colonel Andrews that the club limit the purse to $10,000 was seconded and carried almost unanimously.

It Did Not Succeed.

GAINESVILLE, TEX., November 20.—An attempt was made near Marietta, Indian Territory on Monday night to [rob] the Kansas City [illegible] express. [The] masked men were discovered concealed in the brush near the Santa Fe track. The fact was telegraphed to this city and to the conductor of the south bound Kansas City train. Officers went from here on a special train to where the masked men were watched, [but] failed to find them. This is the second attempt to rob the Kansas City train at the same point in the last two weeks. E. F. Bunch the notorious train robber, is known to have been in that vicinity and the attempted robberies are believed to be his work.

Will Go to Jail.

SALT LAKE, Utah, November 20.—In the Mormon investigation to-day Charles Penrose flatly refused to answer the question as to the number of wives he had. His counsel again called the court's attention to the fact that President Cleveland had granted Penrose amnesty and he thought the court had no right to compel the witness to answer. The court decided that the witness was in contempt and he will be committed to the penitentiary until he has purged himself. Penrose was taken to the penitentiary this afternoon. He is preparing a written statement to lay before the court to-morrow morning.

Merrick Wants Damages.

DENVER, November 20.—George G. Merrick brought suit in the district court to-day to recover $100,000 damages from Ira W. Pendleton, W. R. Reynolds and L. M. Babcock. The plaintiff claims to have organized and entered into an agreement with the defendants to build a railroad in Pitkin county and that this agreement was violated by the defendants when they organized the Pitkin County Railroad company, took in Senator Tabor and left him out in the cold. The petition is very lengthy. The sheriff served the papers this afternoon.

Held [illegible] Bail.

OSWEGO, Kas., November 20.—The examination of Mrs. Monroe and Mrs. Flora Davis, the women supposed to be old Mrs. Bender and Kate Bender, was [conc]luded late last night, and the three justices before whom the examination was made, decided that the evidence was strong enough to warrant holding the prisoners without bail to await the action of the grand jury. The general public here are in sympathy with the prisoners and much surprise was expressed when the decision was announced.

[illegible]

BERLIN, November 20.—The Emin Pasha relief committee have received a dispatch from Zanzibar stating that letters from Dr. Peters bearing date of October 5, had reached Lamoo, East Africa. The expedition was then at Kerkeiro. Everything was proceeding satisfactorily. It is argued by the committee that the purport of this letter shows the report of the massacre of Dr. Peters and the members of the expedition by the natives to be untrue.

[The] Utah S[outh]ern Ext[ension].

CHICAGO, November 20.—A special from Boston says: The contract has been let for the extension of the Utah Southern to Pioche, Nevada, and contracts for the remainder of the line will be ready very soon. The expectation is that the road will be completed within two years. Rodondo is to be the seaboard terminus and extensive preparations for shipping are to be made.

[illegible]

DENVER, November 20.—Mrs. Nellie Bena shot herself through the left breast at an early hour this morning. Poverty and disappointment are said to be the cause. Her husband, B. C. Bena, reached home an hour later and after looking at his dying wife jabbed a small knife into his own breast and then swallowed a small dose of morphine, but was pumped out. The woman will die.

Big Iron Works Failure.

TORONTO, Ont., November 20.—The failure of the Polson Iron Works company here has caused considerable surprise. The liabilities are somewhere in the neighborhood of $300,000. The company had a big ship yard and shops at Owen Sound and contracts for iron vessels exceeding $500,000. Liquidators have been appointed to carry on the business.

McCarthy After Hall.

WASHINGTON, November 20.—Sheriff McCarthy, of Pueblo, Colo., arrived here this afternoon with a requisition for Robert E. Hall, the Colorado local preacher, who is wanted in Pueblo on charges of obtaining about $1200 through forgery and false pretenses. Hall will probably be surrendered to the sheriff in the morning.

Co[oper] Goes to Chicago

DENVER, November 20.—Governor Cooper left suddenly for Chicago and New York last evening. By some the governor's trip east is considered significant, as it was intimated some time ago that all the western governors would be called together in secret session at Chicago to confer on the world's fair location.

Bur[ied] by Falling Rocks

ISHPEMING, Mich., November 20.—Seven miners were buried by a fall of rock in the Buffalo mine at Negaunee last night. A Swede named Olson was instantly killed and two others were fatally injured. One man is still in the mine.

Fl[oods] in New York.

ELMIRA, N. Y., November 20.—The flood reached its height here this morning without doing more serious damage in the city than filling cellars caving in sewers etc. The railroads are badly demoralized.

Cruel Bosses.

BALTIMORE, November 20.—In the Navassa rioters' trial to-day, some of the negroes testified as to the plot to kill the bosses and also as to the existence of a deplorable species of slavery on the island. The bosses were very cruel and much of the food was not fit to eat.

AMERICAN CONGRESS.

Work of Organization Progressing Somewhat Slowly.

Fitzgerald Opposes a Relief Movement for Mrs. Parnell.

Judge Longenecker on the Stand in the Cronin Trial.

A Sensation with Regard to the White Horse Promised.

The American Congress

WASHINGTON, November 20.—The session of the International American conference to-day was devoted entirely to efforts to effect an organization and some progress was made in that direction. The report of the committee on credentials was presented and all the delegates were seated. The report of the committee on rules was laid before the conference. After considerable discussion upon the report and without coming to any conclusion Secretary Blaine, to facilitate the transaction of business, suggested that the report be postponed until Friday and this action was taken.

Senor Quintana of the Argentine Republic then called up his resolution providing for the appointment of two secretaries who were described by the presiding officer as English Spanish and Spanish English secretaries. Before the matter could be passed upon Senor Romero of Mexico called up the report of the committee on committees. Pending its consideration the question came up as to how the chair was to be filled in Mr. Blaine's absence. After a long discussion it was decided to select a president pro tem by lot. The names of the countries represented were written on cards which after being carefully mixed up were drawn out in the following order: Hayti, Nicaragua, Peru, Guatemala, Uruguay, Colombia, Argentine, Costa Rica, Paraguay, Brazil, Honduras, Mexico, Bolivia, United States, Venezuela, Chili, Salvador and Ecuador. A representative to be selected by the delegations from these countries will take turns in filling the chair in Mr. Blaine's absence.

Fitzgerald Answers a Question

LINCOLN, Neb., November 20.—In answer to the question whether the Irish National League of America was going to take any public steps to relieve the alleged straightened circumstances of Mrs. Parnell, President John Fitzgerald replied in the negative. He said: "I think any public movement in that direction would be indelicate and indecent; an insult to the Parnell family and a slur upon the character of her distinguished son. The reported sad condition of Mrs. Parnell could not possibly have resulted from the neglect of her family. Parnell himself expressed painful surprise when the intelligence was conveyed to him, as he had made ample arrangements to supply her financial welfare. Some of th[ose] who are urging public subscriptions for Mrs. Parnell are men who in their craving for notoriety, have no conception of honor or decency, but I hope the innate delicacy of the Irish character will prevent the Irishmen of America from playing into the hands of those pretended patriots and philanthropists. Mrs. Parnell's family can and will care for her wants without uncalled for public interference.

Trying to Pr[ove] Alibis.

CHICAGO, November 20.—The testimony to prove alibis for the defendants in the Cronin case was resumed this morning. Mrs. Thomas Whalen who keeps house for O'Sullivan and her sister Kate McCormack who spent the night of the murder at O'Sullivan's house corroborated the evidence of the former witnesses that O'Sullivan was in the house all the time that night. They were awake till one o'clock in the morning and he was still there. Mrs. Whalen was present when Clancy of the New York Herald wanted O'Sullivan to go to see Cronin's body. O'Sullivan refused because he didn't know Clancy but said he would go if the police wanted him to do so.

Matt Danahy, a saloon keeper, testified that Martin Burke was in his saloon from 7 to 10 o'clock on the evening of May 4th. On cross examination the fact was developed that the witness was a member of Camp 20. He admitted that he had been supplying Burke's meals to him and that he visited Winnipeg some time ago for the purpose of "looking around." He denied ever having sent money to Burke at Winnipeg and denied that he ever called Cronin a spy or other opprobrious epithet. He admitted that he was treasurer of the prisoners' defense fund and active in raising money. W. F. Coughlin, saloon keeper, corroborated Danahy's testimony about Burke being in the latter's saloon that night.

At the afternoon session John O. Malley, clerk in the north side assessor's office, corroborated Danahy's evidence as to Burke. James Tyman, a city contractor and a member of Camp 20, told of the meeting of February 8th when a committee was appointed to investigate the statement that the report of the Buffalo trial committee had been premature[ly] made public in Cronin's camp. The witness said that after the resolution was adopted the matter was reconsidered and referred to District Officer Spillman of Peoria. Ex-Congressman John F. Finerty, said he was a member of Camp 20. He had never heard of an "inner circle" in it. Several other witnesses were examined in regard to the inner circle, but none of them [knew any]thing about it.

State's Attorney Longenecker was then called as a witness in behalf of Defendant Beggs. He objected, but after a brief argument the court ordered the examination to proceed. In reply to questions the state's attorney said he had heard Beggs' testimony before the coroner's jury and had subsequently caused Beggs to be brought before the grand jury. When Foster asked him if he had examined Beggs before the grand jury, Mills of counsel for the state, objected. In reply to a query of the court as to what he meant by this line of examination, Foster said: "I mean to show that Beggs voluntarily [illegible] the state's attorney when a witness before the grand jury in regard to this Cronin correspondence and the action of Camp 20 in this matter. I propose to show first that the information came from Beggs to Longenecker of the matter being referred to Spillman and further that through Chief of Police Hubbard Beggs, presented to the states attorney the correspon[dence] [illegible]

[illegible] Beggs [illegible] that Beggs had [illegible] who were [illegible]

Foster then [illegible] statement of Beggs before [illegible] the first information the state's attorney had that [illegible] the correspondence [illegible] desire [illegible] this question was putting words in his mouth and [illegible] and that Beggs said there were letters that would explain the whole thing or [illegible] nothing to that effect. The letters were written to Spillman to explain the secret committee arrangement. The state's attorney further, [illegible] in reply to a question that Beggs wanted him to [illegible] letter.

Chief of Police Hubbard was called and admitted that after Beggs' arrest they had had a conversation regarding the Spillman correspondence and that Beggs had directed where, in Longenecker's desk, [he] could find the letters which he wished taken to Longenecker. The court then adjourned.

It was [expected] to-night that the defense in the Cronin case will spring a sensation to-morrow in the shape of evidence that the horse which conveyed Cronin from his office on May 4, was not a white horse at all and therefore could not have been Dinan's animal for the hire of which Coughlin is responsible.

Knights of L[abor].

ATLANTA, November 20.—Yesterday the convention of the Knights of Labor went into committee of the whole to consider the eight hour per day movement. It decided not to endorse any general strike. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor forwarded a letter to the convention in which he said his men opposed a general strike. The following was adopted:

Resolved, That we coincide with the view of the president of the American Federation of Labor that no "general strike" will be inaugurated upon May 1, 1890, and that the movement be confined to such trades as are in a condition to put the plan into operation.

Resolved, That we call upon the president of the American Federation of [Lab]or to indicate the trade or trades organized within the folds of that society which is or are prepared successfully to inaugurate the eight hour movement on May 1, 1890, and we are confident that Knights of Labor will lend their moral support to the movement in favor of such trade or trades.

In the convention to-day various standing committees made reports, among them the committees on insurance law, finance and corporations. The committee on appeals and grievances made their final report. The finance committee recommended a change so that in the future only actual car fare to and from the conventions be paid. In the future all local assemblies attached to the general assembly will pay a tax of ten cents per capita per quarter instead of six cents as heretofore. The general executive board was empowered at their discretion to put on an assessment tax of not more than twenty cents for the next year. A resolution was passed declaring that the general assembly favored an increase in the pay of the printers' assistants in the bureau of engraving and printing at Washington from $1.15 to $3 per day. A resolution was also passed recognizing election days as legal holidays and imposing a penalty on any employer violating them.

The general assembly closed to-night. Mr. Powderly said in his closing speech that it had been the most profitable session ever held. The executive board will select the location for the meeting of the next assembly. Powderly asked to have his salary reduced from $5,000 to $2,500, but the finance committee and assembly refused to allow it to be done.

Not seeking [illegible] Now.

WASHINGTON, November 20.—Dr. Oalente the Brazilian minister has not yet been officially requested to ask the United States government to recognize the United States of Brazil. He believes that such request will not be made immediately, but that the new government will wait a reasonable length of time to satisfy the world of its stability before seeking recognition. The minister regards the views of the dominant republicans as set forth in their manifesto as most reasonable in all respects.

The Def[ense] Cl[oses].

DENVER, November 20.—The defense in the Durant Bonnybel mining suit closed its direct testimony at noon to-day and at 2 o'clock this afternoon the plaintiff commenced proceedings in rebuttal. Mr Max Boehmer of Leadville this morning gave blackboard drawings and accompanying explanations depicting the theory of the defense and the conditions found in support thereof. Mr. Boehmer's testimony was to a [considera]ble extent a summing up of the case for the defense, concluding with a scientific explanation of the conditions as they are claimed to exist by the witnesses for the Bonnybel. The case of the plaintiff in rebuttal was commenced at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

In the afternoon Henry Sayre and W. B. Page, witnesses for the plaintiffs, were on the stand. Nothing sensational was developed up to the time of the adjournment of court.

Fire in Salida.

DENVER, November 20.—A special from Salida says: A fire last night in Peter Mulvaney's livery stable burned one horse to death and destroyed a large number of vehicles and it also consumed most of the building. The loss will amount to $5,000, mostly insured. This is Mr. Mulvaney's fifth experience with fire he having been burned out that many times before.

Pierce will be Ch[osen].

BISMARCK, N. D., November 20.—Both house and senate to-day gave the entire republican vote to Gilbert A. Pierce for the United States senate. The joint session to-morrow will elect him. For the second senatorship Johnson still leads. It is possible the election will be thrown into the legislature without a caucus choice. A new candidate was brought into the field to-day in the person of J. B. Casey, of Jamestown.

The "scoop" in Brazil is explained by the fact that three of the new cabinet are journalists.

We print elsewhere some suggestions made by the ministerial association of this city, regarding funeral services. The propriety and wisdom of the suggestions will be apparent at once.

It is said that the Sixteenth street property holders of Denver will shortly meet and arrange for paving that street, without waiting for a new decision from the supreme court. As a matter of fact, Denver has paid a less proportion of its state tax than any other part of the state. The immediate purpose is to raise a national ... force for mutual protection. But it is the first step toward independence from the mother country. England found it a very simple matter to deal with each of the thirteen original colonies in this country. But when each made the cause of all the rest its own, the situation materially changed. The statistics are of vital importance for comparison. The first year's work is largely preparatory and will only be valuable as it gives a foundation for work in other years to build upon. Mr. Skiff has shown great interest in his work, and is the right man in the right place. We hope that the state officials will find ...e way to provide for the continuance of this work.

As Dom Pedro did not take an active part in the affairs of state, but simply desired to be comfortable, he probably will not ask much sympathy because of his overthrow. According to the terms offered him, he was to leave Brazil within twenty-four hours, receiving two millions, five hundred thousand dollars in cash and an annual pension, during his life of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars, which is to be on the civil list of the new republic. After all, the abdication and the revolution in the Brazilian government has not affected in the slightest degree the business of Brazil. The reason of it is simple. The government of Brazil was through the cabinet and Dom Pedro was a mere figure head. The figure head has been moved and the government remains. It would be very much the same if there should be a revolution in England and the house of Guelph should no longer reign. As Queen Victoria is now a mere figure head registering the edicts of parliament. She has no real power. To all intents and pur... any act might as well become final in receiving the signature of the speaker of the house of commons. As a matter of sentiment, these figure heads are sometimes very useful, but so far as the real prosperity of the country is concerned, it makes little difference whether they exist or not. No better testimony could be given of the character of the Brazilians than this peaceful change in the government.

Ended in a Tie.

DENVER, November 20.—The series of games between the St. Louis and Boston clubs in this city closed to-day in a tie. The game was called on account of darkness, the score standing 9 to 9 in the sixth inning. Both teams now go to Colorado Springs and Pueblo; when the St. Louis boys will leave for the south and the Bostons go on to the coast. A ball in their honor is now in progress at the largest hall in Denver.

The suit grew out of letters from Powderly published in the Journal of United Labor last year. THE [illegible] ETCHER

[illegible] of a Great Etcher [illegible] Mrs. Adsit

The talk of Mrs. Adsit [illegible] today afternoon was well attended. The qualities of a great etcher were outlined.

The first qualification of a great etcher in the way of execution [illegible] A correct representation [illegible] of objects as they appear in nature [illegible] accurately is necessary [illegible] only work to express knowledge and power [illegible] in every line [illegible].

The second quality of an etcher is [illegible] his drawing or the ability to grasp a subject in its entirety [illegible] to see things in their relation [illegible] one another.

[illegible] of abstraction enables the [illegible] to seize salient points and boldly [illegible] and individualize form. A [illegible] line drawn in the true spirit [illegible] suggests a hundred lines [illegible] abstraction but is [illegible] synthetic. It detaches [illegible], emphasizing what [illegible] most important, and is the one [illegible] quality of great etchers.

[illegible] is an important quality [illegible] endeavor. It is a soulful [illegible] that enables the etcher to [illegible] the heart beats of nature and [illegible] power of grandest form.

Emphasis is deliberate exaggeration of what has most impressed the etcher in the presence of nature, and is what expression is to music, but the expression of the sentiment must be subtle, delicate in order to touch the feelings of the observer.

Passion is one of the first conditions of success. To feel intensely and to be able to record emotions before the fire dies out of them is what makes etching superior to all other arts.

Frankness is charming and gives this sort of work much of its fascination.

Speed, guided by good judgment and rigid selection, is a desirable quality. But no lines must be laid in not previously weighed mentally.

Motive is the grand underlying quality that lifts etching out of the material into the spiritual and gives a delightful atmosphere to the work. It is only by unreserved surrender to impressions that the beauties of nature can find truthful expression.

Mrs. Slocum in behalf of the Ladies Educational society returned thanks to Mrs. Adsit for her art talks, which have been of very great value to a community whose cultivated tastes had already prepared it to appreciate them, illustrated as they were by the choicest etchings and engravings.

Mrs. Adsit expressed a warm interest in the welfare of the college and a purpose to do more for it in the future. She had been told by the publishers that Colorado Springs was but a hamlet and if she came here her talks and pictures would not be appreciated, but she had sold more great proofs here than she had done in any large city of the country and more than she could have done in New York or Boston, and aroused a deep interest in art besides she hoped.

If the study of art tends to make life joyous why then is it not a practical thing. One's eyes need to be kept open to a perception of the "beauty everywhere," and which it is the mission of art to reproduce. Life is so full of homely duties, troubles and disappointments, that the cultivation of a love of high art gives an outlook above them, just as one ascends the mountain peaks to breath the inspiration of the upper air and feel his pulses stirred by something broader than comes into the round of daily life on the levels below.

Mrs Sevory in behalf of the educational society presented the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this class be tendered to Mrs. Hagerman for her interest and help as shown in opening her house so freely to all who wished to see Mrs. Adsit's pictures.

Suggestions to the Public.

The ministerial association of the city after discussing the question of funeral [illegible] make these suggestions to the public:

1 That the whole of the service be conducted at the home of the deceased or in the church as may be desired.

2 That the interment take place at such time after the service as may best [illegible] family of the deceased.

3 That the present custom of bearers [illegible] carriages full of mourners [illegible] to the cemetery be discouraged.

The reasons for these suggested changes are

1 Our citizens represent many eastern [illegible] and have been accustomed [illegible] forms of service. It will be granted that a certain uniformity in our [illegible] service is desirable

2 The method suggested is similar to that which prevails in several eastern cities.

3 The present custom of providing [illegible] carriages for friends and acquaintances entails a very serious expense upon many a family at a time when they are least able to bear it.

4 Complaints have been made of the [illegible] health by exposure in the cemetery in winter time during the open air [illegible]

5 Such a change would be a saving of [illegible] the officiating clergymen, in a [illegible] in which the pastoral duties [illegible] onerous.

The Ministerial association do not wish [illegible] to dictate these changes, [illegible] suggestion is made in the hope [illegible] will be adopted by the members [illegible] churches and by the citizens generally [illegible] reasonable and desirable re[illegible]

A Generous Gift

[illegible] Educational Society of [illegible] has just received a [illegible] hundred feet of land in North Colorado Springs as a donation [illegible] Mr. J. B. Wheeler Mr. J. A. Hayes, [illegible] Mr. Louis R. Ehrlich, towards [illegible] for the proposed girls' hall of the college.

This generous gift is a prompt and [illegible] response to Mr. Ehrlich's [illegible]

[illegible] the past week [illegible]

The following report [illegible]

[illegible]

Base Ball To-Day

Mr. Dave Rowe who is manager of the St. Louis Association club and Boston League club during their tour of the state, arrived in this city yesterday and completed arrangements for a game at the Athletic grounds to-day between the two great aggregations. Mr. Rowe was seen by a Gazette reporter last evening and stated that he would guarantee the public an honestly played game of ball. He would consider a repetition of the [illegible] by the Chicagos and All Americas last year, a sufficient reason for withholding every cent of the money from the visiting clubs. Mr Rowe stated that he would have Clarkson in the box for a few innings at least so that the audience will have an opportunity to see the work of the $10,000 man. If any change is made later in the game Radbourne, who has been famous since he pitched the winning games for the great Providence nine, will be substituted. Ganzell, the old Detroit back stop, will wear the mask for the Bostons. Captain Morrill, Nash, Richardson, and other stars of the "bean eaters," will occupy their regular positions. King will be in the box for St. Louis. Latham, the noisy Missouri coacher, whose popularity on every field is well known, will play short for the Browns. O'Neil and O'Brien, the great fielders, are also with the combination. The admission price has been fixed at seventy five cents and grand stand twenty five cents extra. The game will be called at 2:30 sharp. Tickets are for sale at Duncan Bell's. The following are the players and positions:

St. Louis.		Boston.
Comiskey	first base	Morrill
Crooks	second base	Richardson
Tebeau	third base	Nash
Latham	short stop	Smith
O'Brien	centre field	Johnston
O'Neil	left field	Brown
Cunningham	right field	Radbourne
King	pitcher	Clarkson
Boyle	catcher	Ganzell

District Court.

Judge Campbell so far has been unable to secure a judge from any of the other districts to assist him in trying cases in which he was previously interested. Matters are dragging in consequence and the jurymen and court officials are killing the time as best they may.

John Powers, one of the men who broke jail and who was serving out a jail sentence for petty larceny under sentence from a Colorado City justice, withdrew his plea of not guilty of jail breaking for which the grand jury had indicted him, and plead guilty. Judge Campbell sentenced him to thirty days in the county jail.

The bondsmen of Jack Davis, who was held to await action by the grand jury last summer for misusing his wife, complaint being made by the Humane Society, were released from their obligation.

In the case concerning the Glockner estate, the final report of the referee showing the distribution of the proceeds of a sale as ordered by the court, was confirmed.

Captain Rogers of the Sunny Side hotel, Manitou, will be tried for contempt of court in that it is alleged he refused to aid the grand jury while making investigations regarding fire escapes. The case will be heard on the 27th.

Baltimore papers of the date of November 7th have been received, containing accounts of the wedding of Mr. John M. Pitts of this city and Miss Katie Herring of Baltimore daughter of J. Q. A. Herring manager of the Adams Express company. The ceremony occurred at Grace M. E. church, situated on Lafayette square, and was one of the most brilliant events of the season so far in that fashionable center of the south. The ushers were Messrs. W. C. Pitts, Mr. Evans, Mr. Cadsworthy, Mr. I. Evans Rogers of Baltimore, Mr. Paul M. Pitts and Mr. Frank Pastorius of Colorado Springs. A reception was tendered the couple at the residence of Mr. Herring, 2312 Linden avenue, immediately after the ceremony, following which they left for an extended tour in the cities of the north. Mr. and Mrs. Pitts are expected in this city about the first of next month.

Officer Gathright on Tuesday arrested [illegible] Eales of Colorado City, at the instigation of the officers of the Humane society. Eales has been employed as dog killer for the city pound at that place, and the warrant states that in killing a dog belonging to one Peter Drake he occasioned it considerable torture. Trial of the case was set before Justice Shideler's court yesterday morning but was taken to Justice Corman on a change of venue. Judge Colburn appeared for the society and [illegible] Harper for the defendant. Testimony was taken but the attorneys not being ready to argue the case it was continued until some future day to be set hereafter.

It is stated that upon arrival at Canon City, Sam Robinson the [illegible] robber, was searched and the sum of $145 [illegible] upon his person. It will be remembered that a large part of the money taken from the Florissant post office could never be found, and it has [illegible] that Robinson did [illegible]

THE PRETTIEST OF THE SEASON.

Down this wide [illegible] street [illegible] the beauty and [illegible] as well as the age and [illegible] feminine New York, and [illegible] young daughters of [illegible] waddle the fat old [illegible]. Carriages go by with fearfully and wonderfully made coachmen [illegible] and all sorts of [illegible] one of the [illegible] that few have [illegible] until they get too old or have too many chins to make walking comfortable. The [illegible] wear long wraps, and have their dresses [illegible] than would be admissible for walking. Well, poor things, let them have that comfort. Everybody can't be as [illegible] as you and I.

The terrible [illegible] have made their appearance two or three times lately in dark maroon, brown and gray short dresses, with buttoned leggings, carrying guns and walking along trying to look as though they thought they could make folks believe that they would shoot off their guns for pay. But few do this foolish thing and not many show themselves, or at least yet, in their riding habits in the horse cars or crowded streets. It has become quite a rage for young ladies to ride safety bicycles in the park, and if they don't get the requisite amount of attention there, why, we'll see them in Fourteenth street soon.

Gum is not "out" yet, and it is not likely to be soon. Dentists are all becoming millionaires, and it is a good job. They always had hard pulling to get along heretofore.

This is the time when the short jacket and small shoulder cape are in season, and muffs and long sealskin coats are not ripe yet. The Russian fur collar which laps over is much worn. It can be fastened on any garment with safety pins and worn with anything. Handsome black faille wraps can be trimmed like the illustration and have a trimming of narrow [illegible] on the long sleeves [illegible] in the front, and this Russian collar to wear with it on cold days.

The prettiest suit I have seen this week was a [illegible] walking dress worn by Miss Dottie Edison, the inventor's daughter. It had the skirt in plain and striped [illegible]. Made as represented in the picture, and worn with the beaver [illegible] jacket of the same color, braided with [illegible] braid. The sleeves were [illegible]. Her hat was of velvet, [illegible] to match, and [illegible] trimmed it. She wore [illegible] Suede gloves. She is of fair complexion and has inherited all her mother's beauty, which is saying much.

[illegible] CREATIONS.

I give three hats or rather one hat and two bonnets. The hat is a "ravishing" [illegible] of white beaver with plumes and white ribbon. The [illegible] is of plush, dark blue with gray-blue ribbon. The other is an [illegible] chip bonnet with velvet flowers in shaded brown and gold and [illegible], with brown velvet strings. Let imagination paint their glory!

FOR INSTANCE!

A gentleman came to Colorado Springs six years ago and rented a [illegible] for $20 per [illegible] then he has paid $1,440 rent on the house and has not a cent of the amount to show. A few days ago we sold him a house [illegible] to the one he had been renting, taking $300 as the first payment and making the terms [illegible] payable in monthly installments of $25. His payments and interest for the period will average about $25 per month, or just what he has been paying for rent. If he had bought this house six years ago when he first came to the city, the money he has paid for rent would have paid all the installments, and actual cost of the house to him would have been just $300—the amount of the first payment. You might as well conclude to reside here [illegible], for there are no better [illegible], and if you are going to [illegible] permanently, it will be "putting [illegible] in your purse" to buy one of our installment houses. We have a fine new house with 5 rooms, [illegible] and other [illegible] only $1,500 which we will sell you [illegible] than you can put it up yourself, and we will make the terms $100 cash and $25 per [illegible]. In Eleazear's great romanza from 'La Juive,' and in the serenade, 'Dunqu pur,' which he gave for an encore, the highest form of vocal art found expression But in the scene from 'Faust,' he awakened the recollections of a day when Italian opera was in its golden age in New York and when he was the sole idol of the public There was an additional charm in the 'Salve dimora,' to the 'Notte d'a...or,' to the 'Dami ancor.'
